Burgess Pigment Company will implement a revised energy surcharge policy on July 1st, 2022. The surcharge will be implemented in the month following any month when the monthly, final settlement price of the New York Mercantile Exchange (NYMEX) Henry Hub natural gas futures contract for the latest month reaches or exceeds $5.00 per MMBTU. We utilize the following URL to monitor the latest settlement pricing:

<https://www.msiutilities.com/resources/nymex-settlement-data/>

The energy surcharge will be invoiced as a separate line item on the commercial invoice. The amount of the surcharge will be applied based on the schedule below and will be adjusted monthly, or rescinded, based on the monthly, final settlement price.
